

What's New at CBIORG?

New Additions to CBIORG

JGCC & CBIORG would like to inform all of our Member's and Clients / Customers that from November 7th 2008 CBIORG has an additional "AA" Rated PGA Golf Professional.

Hailing from Wellington, New Zealand, Mr. Thomas (Tom) Brodie has an exciting professional golfing background having been a top 20 NZ PGA Order of Merit Player in 2007, Tom also has extensive experience with teaching players of all abilities. Tom has also been Head Instructor for the NZ Golf Association Junior Golf Development Program, even more of a reason to introduce your young ones to this lifelong game.

Tom is available for lessons at CBIORG exclusively, contact us at any of the numbers and email addresses below and start now to improve your game!

Daniels Student Wins Big Time!

Once again CBIORG Scholarship Juniors make National Headlines... Agnes Retno Sudjasmin aged 17 years managed to win the 30th Indonesian Ladies Amateur Open Golf Championship 2008, held October 21st – 24th at the New Kuta Golf Club, Pecatu Bali. Retno won in a Play-Off against Bali's own "Golden-Girl" Ines Putri. Tied after the 3 round tournament on a score of 266, Retno made a confident Birdie to win the 1st Sudden Death Play-Off hole. Read more about this event on the following web-link: <http://pgionline.org/ladies/index.php?isinyaberita=21>

CBIORG will miss Retno in 2009 as she will continue her pursuit of a great future in the game of golf by moving to USA to undertake a University Golf Scholarship. CBIORG wishes her all the best and feels wonderful that it has played a big part in her success.

If you would like to book a lesson with Daniel O'Neill, he can be contacted at any of the numbers and email addresses below:
